Ministers to the Will of the Emperor. Petrograd, Jan. 10. 3 p. m., via London. 9.35 p. m.—The political situa-tion during the last two months, for which the word "crisis" seems entirely inadequate, has taken a new turn with the resignation of Alexander Treport from the premiership and of Count Ignatieff, minister of public instruc-tion, and the appointment of a new premier. The official announcement of this change which has fallen upon the country, continuously excited and emotionally exhausted by the drama of swift changes and climaxes, hardly created the effect which would have been natural under other circum-

This time the tide has suddenly shifted and is running strongly in the reverse direction. Prince Golltzine, who succeeds Trepoff, is a member of the extreme conservative group who always manifested the strongest re-actionary principles, and, as a member of the imperial council, has always of the imperial council, has always shown little sympathy for the progressive tendencies of the new regime. The ostensible reason for his replacement of Trepoff was the apparent inability of the latter to preserve a strong, united cabinet.

$3,000,000 IN COMMISSIONS ON A MUNITIONS CONTRACT

Brought to Light in a Suit Brought by the Aetna Explosives Co.

New York, Jan. 10. — A munitions contract through which Edgar W. Bassick of this city was to receive approximately $3,000,000 in com proximately $3,000,000 in commissions, came to light here today when the Aetna Explosives Company, Inc., obtained an injunction from the supreme court restraining Bassick and others from disposing of certain promissory notes and transferring certain stocks pending the trial of a suit brought by the explosives encern he explosives concern.

Passick's name was mentioned prom-nently some time ago in connection with commissions said to have been aid in connection with munitio tracts out of which grew charges against Sir Sam Hughes, formerly ninister of militia.

Bassick was one of several Americans named by Sir Sam as having organized his plants to fill the fuse contracts, and that they had accepted cash advances of only 15 per cent. When the rate of Russian, French and British advances was 25 per cent."

The present suit is the result of contracts said to have been made with the French government by the Astro. Company, Inc., in 1915 and 1916. Bassick, for his services, is said to have received $644,950 in cash. $1,700,00 in par value preferred stock of the company and $595.595 in promissory notes. Some of the securities and notes, it is alleged, have passed into the headers.

into the hands of others named as co-defendants with Bassick.

The explosives company, while ad-mitting that its officers entered into the agreement with Bassick and gave him the securities and notes disclaims responsibility and alleges that the responsibility and alleges that the officers exceeded their authority by not waiting to have their action ratified by the board of directors. Bassick, however, contends that he is entitled to "every penny agreed to be paid

Nearing home, Dr. Allen encountered Crozier and when asked the reason or the call, Crozier said he knew of for the call, Crozier said he knew of none. When they entered the house they found the bodies of four of the children lying on a bed and the baby in a cradle nearby. A note, found on the table and believed to have been written by Mrs. Crozier, accused Crozier of infidelity and declared "I don't want my children to grow up in a house of shame." A search in which neighbors joined resulted in the discovery of the dying woman in a ditch nearly a mile from the home.

The Croziers were married fifteen years ago. Neighbors declared that Mrs. Crozier had been acting strange-
